The four sectors of the economy

Describe the functions of four major sectors in the U.S. economy.

Name: _____ Date: _____

IN PLAIN WORDS

Four big players keep the economy moving: households (supply workers, buy stuff), businesses (make stuff), banks (hold savings, make loans), and government (collects taxes, provides public services).

WHICH SECTOR IS DOING THIS JOB? CIRCLE YOUR ANSWER

A family buys milk and bread at the grocery store.

Household · Private business · Bank · Government

A dad drives to his job every day to earn money for his family.

Household · Private business · Bank · Government

A toy company makes and sells building blocks.

Household · Private business · Bank · Government

A restaurant cooks and serves dinner to customers.

Household · Private business · Bank · Government

A bank lets you open a savings account and earn interest.

Household · Private business · Bank · Government

A family borrows a loan from a bank to help buy a car.

Household · Private business · Bank · Government

The government collects taxes to help pay for public schools.

Household · Private business · Bank · Government

The government uses tax money to build and repair roads.

Household · Private business · Bank · Government