Color a square when its clue is called. Five in a row wins.

Market Bingo

Fill your own card with market words, then color the squares as the clues are called.

How to play

1. One person is the caller. Only the caller needs to cut out the clue cards on the dashed lines. Fold them and mix them in a cup.
2. The caller pulls one clue and reads it out loud. Do not read the number.
3. Find the word that matches the clue. If it is on your card, color that square. The FREE square counts from the start.
4. Five colored squares in a row, across, down, or corner to corner, wins. Say "Market" and read your five words back. The caller checks them with the answer key on page 3.
5. Playing alone? Be your own caller. Count how many clues it takes to get five in a row, then try to beat it.

Clue cards. Cut on the dashed lines.

1	A person who buys and uses goods and services.	13	Things you can touch that people make and sell.
2	Anyone who makes goods or provides services. The opposite of a consumer.	14	Work people do for others, like a haircut.
3	Two or more businesses trying to win the same customers.	15	A person or business that hires workers.
4	The amount of money you pay to buy something.	16	A person who works for someone else for pay.
5	Any place where buyers and sellers meet to trade.	17	A lower price for a short time, to bring in buyers.
6	The amount a worker is paid for each hour of work.	18	To tell people about a product so they will buy it.
7	The work people do, with their hands or their minds.	19	Something new that someone creates for the first time.
8	All the money that comes in to a person, from any source.	20	What a business pays to make and sell its product.
9	A person who starts a business and takes the risk.	21	To compare prices at different stores before you buy.
10	The chance that you could lose money.	22	The check or deposit a worker gets on payday.
11	Money a business keeps after it pays all its costs.	23	A company or shop that sells things to earn money (not a person).

What this sheet practices

SS5E3 (a) to (c): the words of a market. Consumers and producers, competition and prices, labor and wages as income, and the risk an entrepreneur takes to start a business. Each clue is a short definition, so every call is a quick vocabulary check.

How to use it in 5 to 10 minutes

1. Have each player fill in a card from the word bank, about 3 minutes.
2. Cut the clue cards from one copy only, and read them in random order.
3. After someone wins, ask them to use two of their five words in one sentence.

Answer key: clue number and word

1 consumer. 2 producer. 3 competition. 4 price. 5 market. 6 wage. 7 labor. 8 income. 9 entrepreneur. 10 risk. 11 profit. 12 loss. 13 goods. 14 services. 15 employer. 16 employee. 17 sale. 18 advertise. 19 invention. 20 cost. 21 shop around. 22 paycheck. 23 business. 24 skill.

One question to talk about

You are a consumer every time you buy something. When could you be a producer? What would you make or do, and what would be the risk?
